

Yeah, sorry. Not made of money. (Or postage weight.)

Download, print and cut out these cards to play to your heart's content, or slip me a few quid to order you a full deck that isn't printed on Amazon Basics A4 tissue paper. Cheapskate.

Shuffle and divide the deck equally between players. Choose a player to start.

Holding in a stack so you can each only see your top card, pick a stat to compare out loud.

All players read their matching stats. Highest wins, taking all the cards played.

Keep going until one player has all the cards, or you've all gotten incredibly bored.
